

Add A Little Peace of Mind

(P Gould)

Far from home
In this fading light
And while you sleep
I'll be running through the night

I long to be
Right where you are
But it pains me to see
I've come too far

In dreams I've flown
Hoping I might find
My Rosetta stone
Down among those rocks unkind

I came to see
The world as we are
But that won't set me free
I've come too far

Now all I've known
May be lost in time
So guide me home
Try to give me one more sign
And to all I own
Add a little peace of mind
