

Cool Man Yeah

(P Gould / M Lindup)

Oh Man

by Como Lake

she told me she was leaving for Rome

Oh Boy

she said it couldn't wait

now I'm stuck in Milan and I'm drowning in my sorrow

Starry eyed

never do reality

shine a light on the whole dark mystery

she's gone but there's always tomorrow

so find a way to be cool man yeah

Someday I might cross that bridge too far

One scene

does not a movie make but when I try to take that call

I find it hard to swallow

Starry eyed
never do reality

I'm on a tide

And it's so not up to me she's gone today but there's always tomorrow
so find a way to be cool man yeah

We want to be loved for who we are someday I might cross that bridge too far

It's time to re-invent the wheel
And stop living in the stone age So tell the girl just how you feel talk like somebody your own age

Cool man yeah
