Cremola Foam

Every night it's the same old dream we're in a beautiful home and we're drinking Cremola Foam

oo-wah, oo-wah
one golden moment in time
oo-wah, oo-wah
one moment frozen in time

Is this the future we had in mind when we laid all our plans it's a movie we can't rewind I'd give up my soul
give all that I know
to have that one moment again to be there with you and talk our way through the future as we saw it then

oo-wah, oo-wah

under shimmering skies take the edge off my eyes and hope that this dream has no end I'd give up my soul
