

All In A Day's Work

(P Gould)

So she tells me now that she's been born again well, just how many times does one girl need to be saved and I'm stuck in orbit around my own self and I can't find a place safe to land

Only today
we made love every way so this is a fine time to tell me you're lonely it's burning away
I got nothing to say it's all in a day's work for Julie and Me

You can take back the words but not that look on your face well, I feel my body aching but it's not my pain so how many times do I have to fall from grace and I don't have the will to change

Back in the day
we made love every way
I guess it's a fine time to tell you I'm lonely we're drifting away so why do we stay it's all in day's work for Julie and Me

You know I dream of you just as you are but all these changes girl are going too far no rhyme or reasons now to turn with seasons now I swear I'll never cause you harm

And I so want to find you

All in a day's work for Julie and Me
